Scaramutti Pablo Martin

Multimedia Designer / Front-end Web Developer

I'm 27 years old based in La Plata, Argentina. I've lernt a lot of tools and skills in my years as student and expanded this knowledge working in startups and as a freelancer. I love new challenges, finding solutions for problems and helping others to have a better life. With my background on multimedia design and programming, I can ideate solutions and bring them to life.

I'm currently searching new experiences to apply and develope my skills and learn from team work.
